Norwich Has to Bow to the Inevitable
—Scores of Citizens Prove It.

After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of Norwich given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the kidneys in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work in other cases. Read this:

Mrs. C. Bennett, 46 Palmer St., Norwich, Conn., says: "Some years ago a member of my family suffered from backache. Every cold he contracted settled on his kidneys and aggravated the trouble. His kidneys were disordered as was shown by the kidney secretions which were irregular in passage. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at N. D. Sevin & Son's Drug Store, brought prompt relief." (Statement given August 31, 1905.)

LASTING EFFECT.

On July 21, 1911, Mrs. Bennett said: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured a member of my family of kidney trouble some years ago and there has been no recurrence of it. I willingly confirm my former public endorsement of this remedy."

VERDICT FOR WESTERLY

Supreme Court Upholds $15,000 Awarded to George E. Champlin.

The verdict for $15,000 in favor of George E. Champlin of Westerly against the Pawcatuck Valley Street Railway company was sustained in an opinion written by Judge Johnson and handed down from the supreme court Friday. This was a suit brought to recover damages for personal injuries resulting from an accident.

The case was tried before Judge Brown and a jury in the superior court in Washington county, December 1 and 2, 1910, resulting in a verdict for the plaintiff for $15,000. A motion for a new trial was denied and the case went to the supreme court on the defendant's bill of exceptions.

The story of the accident, by which Mr. Champlin was injured is outlined from the testimony and given by Judge Johnson in the opinion as follows: "On the 13th day of July, 1910, the plaintiff was driving a pair of horses attached to a cart carrying a load of gravel, weighing from 800 to 900 pounds, along a highway in the town of Westerly, known as the Westerly road, between Ninigret avenue and Washington avenue."

"At a place in said highway on the part of the road between the railroad track and the sidewalk he met an automobile. The automobile turned to the right and ran upon the sidewalk, but was not able to continue until it had passed the cart, because of a pole standing in the sidewalk. About five or six feet from the pole the automobile stopped. The plaintiff drove to the right so far that one of his wheels rubbed against the rail, and in this position the right wheels of his cart just cleared the automobile."

"While the plaintiff's team was in this position he heard the car approaching from behind. He looked back and, as he testified saw it 200 feet away. He could not turn from the track in the position he then occupied by reason of the presence of the automobile. He urged his horses and made an effort to pass the automobile. He had partly passed the automobile and was turning away from the railroad track when the car came up behind him and the running board of the car, after clearing the plaintiff's rear wheel, struck his forward wheel, causing a jolt which threw the plaintiff off his cart to the ground, and in that position the wheel of the cart crushed and injured him."

The supreme court says that on the question of liability the verdict was amply supported by the evidence. As to the amount of damages, the plaintiff, a man of 50, received fractures of the pelvis and permanent injuries. The damages are not so large as to indicate passion or prejudice on the part of the jury, or to shock the conscience of the court," says Judge Johnson. The defendant's exceptions are overruled and the case is remitted to the superior court.

CIRCULATES $185,000,000.

New Haven Road Has 75,000 Men in the Employ of Its Various Enterprises.

Are you aware that the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad is the foremost business enterprise not only of your state, but of the whole New England section? President Nielsen of that road, in an address to New Haven business men the other night, does you appreciate that its aggregate operations represent nearly $185,000,000 of earnings every year? Do you appreciate that there are 75,000 men in the employ of the various enterprises which it dominates? Are you aware that it sets more beds every night than it sets in more beds every night than the Waldorf-Astoria, that it feeds more people every day than any two hotels in New York city? When you do appreciate these things, I think you will appreciate that there is more loyalty in the officials of that company who maintain its headquarters in your midst, not as many of you think, by law, but by the personal preference of these officers. Let me correct an impression that I know must prevail with many of you, because I see it so often in the papers myself, that this company is limited in its dividends by its charter by the law of Connecticut. Nothing is further from the truth. Nothing but its earnings limit its dividends; it could declare 100 per cent tomorrow, if earned. There is no reason, except by preference of the official staff, why New Haven should be its headquarters. There is no requirement that its president should be a resident of Connecticut. Many of the things that you have strongest in your mind, that are thrown at me most frequently, that I see almost from day to day in the press, are absolute figments of some man's imagination, who probably gets $1.50 per day, and is not to blame that he does not have a better understanding.

Explained Why Show Girls Are Attractive to Rich Young Men.

"A rich man's son marries a show girl because he wants a wife who will be a good comrade instead of a statue on a pedestal," said Elinor Pendleton Ream at New York the other day. Mrs. Ream, who is a former show girl and the wife of Lewis Marshall Ream, whose father, Norman B. Ream, has $50,000,000, was decidedly "miffed" because Sir Arthur W. Updegraff says the reason is because "he is usually a weakling."

"A show girl of the right type," continued Mrs. Ream, "is a wholesome, straightforward girl who makes a wonderful wife. She is often criti-
